Prayer Requests

Pray for us as we travel to Anaheim this month with our family for a Regional Staff Conference & Crossroads our Annual Recruiting Conference.

Pray for Jasmine and Daniel as they travel with us to hear about ministry opportunities with Campus Crusade after college.

Pray that more laborers would be raised up with a heart to minister to ethnic and minority students.

Pray for Ken as he travels to Orlando alone after Thanksgiving to discuss with the National Director of Operations about using his skills as a programmer to equip our field laborers with the tools they need to maximize their effectiveness in the field. Pray for God's direction in these meetings.

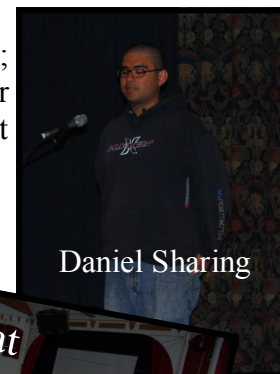

We praise God and thank Him for you our supporters as you overwhelmingly ministered to us as we hit a dark place when we lost our 3rd child (Baby Jordan) in the womb last month.

Coram Deo Latin for "before the face of God"

Coram Deo... living all of life in the presence of God, under the authority of God, and to the Glory of God. I think I am just beginning to understand what Paul meant when he said "to live is Christ". In a nut shell... it's not about me. This last year has been hard. And if you received our most recent email you know we've been getting discouraged.

Most people have seasons when they feel they just can't keep going; and can't take anymore. But, regardless of what our emotions or our circumstances may tell us, God's word says, "My grace is sufficient for you" (2 Cor 12:9). Most of us are familiar with this verse. But, when it comes to the circumstances and trials of our lives, I think few of us really believe it. It's so tempting to lie to ourselves and believe that we "can't go on..."

However, whether I choose to believe it or not, if I am a child of His, the truth is that "His grace is sufficient for me." For every moment, every circumstance, every detail, every need, and every failure of my life... with His grace I stand before the face of God and it's sufficient.
